

Office of the Arizona State Treasurer Terms of Use for Social Media Pages

The Office of the Arizona State Treasurer (ASTO) social media pages are intended to serve as informational platforms on the ongoing business of the Arizona Treasury and Treasurer Kimberly Yee.

We welcome comments that are on topic. Comments posted to our pages are subject to public disclosure and will be monitored. The Office of the Arizona State Treasurer reserves the right to remove or hide comments that:

- Contain obscene language or sexual content
- Promote commercial services or products
- Promote illegal activity
- Contain language threatening or defaming any person, organization, ethnic or religious group
- Promote, foster or perpetuate discrimination or harassment based on race, sex, gender, religion, national origin, disability or age
- Multiple, successive off-topic posts, meaning posts that are unrelated to the subject matter of the original post or related to ASTO's mission, by a single user
- Contain spam, malware or links to other sites
- Infringe on copyrights, trademarks, or other intellectual property
- Constitute or include an inappropriate and/or unauthorized disclosure of personal/private information about any individual
- Contain information that could reasonably compromise public safety

We may post links to other websites or social media pages that we believe contain useful information for you. This is not an endorsement of any such third-party site or page and we are not responsible for the contents, policies or terms of use of such sites.

Official Office of the Arizona State Treasurer Social Media Accounts:

- Twitter - @AZTreasury
- Facebook – Office of the Arizona State Treasurer