The Task Force is the next step in Treasurer Yee's long-standing advocacy to increase financial literacy in Arizona. As Treasurer, she has led initiatives to: require Arizona high schools to teach financial education before graduation (Laws 2019, Chapter 84); establish the Treasurer's Financial Literacy Fund and require the Treasurer to promote financial literacy to Arizona residents (Laws 2020, Chapter 76); allow families in the TANF program to use financial education to help meet their work requirements (Laws 2020, Chapter 23); and advance opportunities for families to access AZ529, Arizona's Education Savings Plan (Laws 2020, Chapter 88). As a member of the Arizona Legislature, she passed laws requiring the state's K-12 academic standards to include financial literacy and established a seal of financial literacy on diplomas that may be earned by graduating high school seniors.
